This fantastic property not only has the street appeal, but it has all of the attributes that make this a sought after home. Five bedrooms - yes you read it right- childrens retreat area, polished floor boards, huge living areas, spacious kitchen and meals and master bedroom does have en suite.

Are we hitting the right nerve yet?

OK we will keep going.

Split system heating and cooling, large colorbond double garage with concrete and power, room to accommodate 6 cars plus the ultimate in man caves!

Built in 8 metre bar that the current owner has tapped in the beer kegs.

He will definately be the envy of his friends. The home is built by reputable local builder,
