"VENDORS SAY SELL"

Can't we buy a nice house on some land, can't we please? Why can't we play footy at our place, cause we haven't got enough room. Why can't my friends stay over, why can't I have a party at our house like Jack can. Dad, I want a horse and Mum says if we ever buy a house she wants a nice kitchen, well I would like a big shed, but I haven't got that have I ! I saw a house in the paper the other day, with a big block of land, I think it said one and a quarter acres, is that big Dad? I reckon it also had a really beaut house with four bedrooms, and guess what, three had wardrobes in them. But the big bedroom at the front had two extra rooms, it didn't have a wardrobe like the rest. What do you call them, oh I know, a bathroom and a big room to put your clothes. Hey Dad this house had another big room at the front, I think they called it a lounge, we only have one don't we? And at the other end of the house there was a room where we could sit together and watch TV or play games, oh and I remember, there was a place to have your meals to. I reckon I should show you this house Dad, cause Mum would be really happy and she might hug you, but I reckon you'd be really happy to Dad cause, guess what, there is a place to put your car but I reckon we could play in there cause it looks like another room. Hey maybe we could buy that billiard tab
