

177 Anzac Avenue SEYMOUR, VIC

A Lasting Impression

Prepare yourself to be delighted!

The moment you walk in the front gate, you will know this home is different from the rest.

And when you step through the front door, I know you will be impressed.

Your eyes will not deceive you, this home is definitely special.

From the beautifully polished timber floors to the exciting decor and design, the property is a showcase of the owners' impeccable taste and attention to detail.

You will have 3 bedrooms, one of which could also be used as a study or nursery, and an optional 4th bedroom in a clean and tidy separate bungalow.

Ducted gas heating, ceiling fans and air conditioning increase the appeal of this charming property.
