Better than Super

This little beauty is a pleasure to inspect and will be an excellent home either for yourself or for tenants.

If you are looking for a healthy investment property, this property should be considered. And if you are looking for a first home or you are thinking of downsizing but you still want a house and yard, then 21 Conabere Court could suit your needs.

The brick veneer home is in excellent condition with low maintenance required.

It provides roomy living, ducted heating, a secure yard and a great location in the Heritage Estate.

Three bedrooms all have built-in robes and the master bedroom has the additional benefit of an ensuite.
